St. Louis Genealogical Society

Who We Are

Founded in 1968, the St. Louis Genealogical Society (StLGS) is an all-volunteer organization dedicated to the preservation of genealogical records in the St. Louis area.

Mission Statement

StLGS promotes family history research by providing education and research opportunities, offering community services, and collecting, preserving, and publishing genealogical and historical records.

What We Do For the Community

- Monthly genealogy meetings
- Active, growing website
- Classes and special events
- Electronic and printed publications

How We Help Preserve St. Louis History

- Cemetery Project: 1.6 million burials
- Congregations: Ongoing data collection for publication online
- Robert Parkin Manuscript Collection, 1760–1998, more than 100,000 names

Are Your Ancestors Eligible For . . .

Sponsored by St. Louis Genealogical Society

Purpose

To identify, recognize, and archive the lineage of historical St. Louis families

Eligibility

Any St. Louis Genealogical Society member who can prove a straight-line descent from an early St. Louis resident in one of these three categories:

Founding Families
(1765–1804)

Pioneer Families
(1805–1821)

Immigrant Families
(1822–1865)

Why Apply?

Imagine life in St. Louis
200 years ago ...

A world without roads,
grocery stores, plumbing,
electricity, or sewers

A world of fur traders, explorers, forts, log houses, and unmapped and unknown locations

This was your ancestors' world!
Preserve it for the future!
