Irish Special Interest Group 2009

Need genealogy research assistance?

The Irish Special Interest Group (I-SIG) provides a forum for those interested in their Irish ancestry to network, share genealogical research, study, and preserve their history. In the oral tradition of the Irish, there is much sharing of information, and the group keeps a database of surnames.

Meetings are held in the East Room of the St. Louis County Library Headquarters (SLCL) on fourth Tuesday nights four times a year from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.
