

St. Louis Genealogical Society
Jewish Special Interest Group 2009

Need genealogy research assistance?

The Jewish Special Interest Group (J-SIG) provides a forum for those interested in their Jewish ancestry to network, share genealogical research, study, and preserve their history.

Meetings are held in the East Room of the St. Louis County Library Headquarters (SLCL) on Wednesday nights four times a year from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. The Jewish SIG is also a member of the International Association of Jewish Genealogical Societies (IAJGS).

J-SIG 2009 Meeting Schedule

Wednesday, 11 March 2009      Internet Sites for Jewish Genealogy

There are many wonderful Jewish genealogy sites in addition to JewishGen. This talk will help you learn of some other lesser known but powerful resources.

Featured Speaker: Ilene Murray, StLGS publications director and co-leader of the Jewish SIG

Wednesday, 20 May 2009      Jewish Cemeteries in St. Louis

There have been Jewish cemeteries in St. Louis City and County since the early nineteenth century. Their history and unique artwork will be of interest to all.

Featured Speaker: Esley Hamilton, preservation historian, St. Louis County Parks Department

Wednesday, 19 August 2009      Jewish Records at the Missouri Historical Society Research Library

This local treasure-trove is filled with possibilities for Jewish research.

Featured Speaker: Dennis Northcott, assistant archivist

Wednesday, 18 November 2009      *The Star of David and the Gold Star:
Jewish-American Military Service and Sacrifice*

Over one million Jews have served in American military units since colonial times.

Learn about Jewish service from the American Revolution through WWII.

Featured Speaker: Tom Pearson, librarian, St. Louis Public Library
