Discover Your Italian Roots!

St. Louis Genealogical Society Launches New Italian Special Interest Group

ST. LOUIS, MO — Benvenuti!
The St. Louis Genealogical Society invites you to celebrate Italian heritage and discover your family history at the inaugural meeting of its new Italian Special Interest Group (Italian SIG) on Saturday, January 30, 2027, at 10:00 a.m. at The Hill Neighborhood Center.

Located in the heart of St. Louis's historic Italian neighborhood, The Hill provides the perfect setting to meet fellow Italian genealogy enthusiasts, share family stories, and explore the fascinating world of Italian genealogical research.

More Than a Meeting!

After our gathering, we'll take a tour of The Hill, celebrating the neighborhood's rich Italian-American history and cultural traditions. We'll conclude with an optional lunch at a neighborhood Italian restaurant — a great opportunity to enjoy good food, lively conversation, and new friendships.
Lunch will be at each participant's own expense.

Whether you're just beginning to trace your Italian ancestors, tackling a family history mystery, or simply passionate about your Italian heritage, everyone is welcome! No genealogical experience or St. Louis Genealogical Society membership is required.

This event is free and open to all.
